

SPRING 2014 - CENTRAL COAST

DYING HAPPENS ON THE LAST DAY; EVERY OTHER DAY IS ABOUT LIVING.

Wilshire Hospice Dazzling Diamond Ball A dazzling win for patients and families!

We proudly announce the long-awaited return of the elegant Dazzling Diamond Ball, a benefit for Wilshire Hospice held on March 15th. Supporters and friends came together for one evening to raise over $45,000 in much needed funds for Wilshire Hospice patients and their families!

It was a spectacular Venetian-themed evening of gowns and glamour, champagne and peach belinis, local wines, food and friends along with the lilting, gypsy sounds of Café Musique and the reeds and brass of the San Luis Jazz Band. We danced the night away under twinkling lights and true Venetian charm.

A sincere "grazie" to all who contributed to the auction; bought tickets or auction items; and showed their support for the mission of Wilshire Hospice with open hearts and wallets. Bravo to Nic Gaudiuso & Toni Erpenbach (above right) the winning bidders of the spectacular Dazzling Diamond Necklace created by Marshalls Jewelers. It truly is a piece of art - from the heart! We would also like to applaud Ball Honorees; Liam Bennett, Caring Hospice Volunteer, Gary Harkins, M.D., Healthcare Professional, and Marshalls Jewelers, Business Philanthropist, on their unwavering dedication and support of Wilshire Hospice in so many ways. Your gracious support provides us the ability to serve those in need in our community.

Thank You & Ciao!

THANK YOU to our sponsors: Marshalls Jewelers, Model Health Care, Union Bank, Tevis Insurance Solutions, Compass Health, Inc., NKT Commercial, Guy Fitzwater & Libbie Agran, Jeff & Andi Portney, Gorelick & Uslander, KCOY & American General Media

WILSHIRE HOSPICE ANNUAL REPORT

By Laurie Smith, Administrator

2013 was a significant year for Hospice Partners of the Central Coast as we undertook a name change to Wilshire Hospice. This step was not taken lightly, however, in the ever-changing landscape of health care we felt we needed to more clearly identify ourselves as associated with the entire range of services that Wilshire Health & Community Services has to offer. Hospice Partners, Inc., now Wilshire Hospice, established hospice services in 1998 in San Luis Obispo County after the close of the County-subsidized hospice agency, which served the region from 1983-1998. Wilshire Hospice is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit agency and a State licensed Medicare and Medi-Cal certified hospice with comprehensive and progressive programs serving residents of the Central Coast. Our truly dedicated and gifted staff continues our tradition of extraordinary community-based hospice care that has been a hallmark of our organization since our beginnings; and together, we take this important step forward.

Wilshire Hospice's interdisciplinary team of nurses, dietitians, spiritual counselors, medical social workers, bereavement counselors, therapeutic musicians and volunteers were privileged to make 22,008 visits in 2013 to 628 patients on the threshold of life. We love what we do and continue to provide patients and their families with a full range of hospice and palliative care services that emphasizes quality of life, choice, dignity and family in the dying process. Our goal remains simple - to enhance our patient's quality of life every day because dying only happens on the last day.

Our hospice care is available to all individuals who qualify and desire our services regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, age, physical, mental or economic status. One-on-one counseling is available to all our hospice families after the death of their family member. In addition, we provide the same level of support to those who may have suffered a sudden unexpected loss unrelated to hospice care. We have considerable experience dealing with very tragic and complicated situations including the death of a child or suicide of a loved one. Wilshire Hospice has the only Center with this level of bereavement services in our region.

I want to extend a personal thank you to our 1,129 community supporters who donated a grand total of $326,971 to Wilshire Hospice in 2013. On behalf of our patients and their families, we offer our heartfelt appreciation for your generosity and continued support which enables us to serve all patients regardless of their insurance coverage or ability to pay for services.

Thank you!

THE CENTER FOR GRIEF, EDUCATION AND HEALING

Licensed, certified hospice programs are mandated by Medicare to provide 13 months of bereavement follow-up to our families; but they provide no reimbursement for those services. Wilshire Hospice Bereavement Services represent 5% unreimbursed expenses of our agency. Your generous contributions enabled us to serve 337 people, which included survivors of hospice patients and survivors of persons not receiving hospice care.

PET THERAPY DOGS BRING SMILES AND SNUGGLES

WILSHIRE HOSPICE PATIENTS ENJOY COMFORT AND WELL-BEING DELIVERED ON FOUR PAWS

Introducing our dedicated Wilshire Hospice Pet Therapy Volunteer Teams; Deb Dight with (Mia) the Rottweiler, Toni Destro with (Buster) the Pit Bull and Denise Fitzgerald with (Mr. Darcy) the English Toy Spaniel (Linda Long not pictured with Zoe the veteran therapy poodle). Our Certified Pet Therapy volunteer teams have been trained to visit hospice patients upon request of the patients or their families. They travel to hospitals, nursing homes and patients' homes and are paid only in the smiles and memories they receive in return.

Therapy dogs are trained to bring comfort and companionship; to nuzzle patients in beds or wheelchairs; make themselves available for petting and even snuggle in bed if they have been invited.

The Pet Therapy Program is just one of the palliative care programs that Wilshire Hospice is proud to offer in concert with the One Voice Supportive Music Program and Wilshire Hospice's interdisciplinary team of clinicians and volunteers. Your support of Wilshire Hospice makes these types of programs possible.

Pet Therapy has been shown to increase pain tolerance, reduce stress, lower blood pressure, and bring an immediate sense of well-being to patients in need. It can be especially useful to dementia patients who have withdrawn from the people around them but find interacting with a pet much easier. Pet visits may also stimulate life review and reminiscence as patients recall their favorite pets from their past or childhood.

"Mia and I have visited our local nursing homes many times. The residents love the dog visits. Occasionally there are people who don't care for dogs. I always ask if someone would like a dog visit before I approach. Most of the residents want a visit and love to share stories of a beloved pet. I have met several residents who show signs of dementia. What impressed me about one resident was the fact that she learned to remember my dog and me. She would ask me, "Where is your dog?" I love the smiles and stories I receive from the residents. They in turn put a smile on my face. It is very rewarding. I have met some truly wonderful people I never would have met any other way. "

- Deb Dight & "Mia"

A TRIBUTE TO JOHN “JOHNNY” BORUK

By Mark Wilson

It's difficult to capture the essence of any man – to summarize, in a few words, the life and fundamental nature of any one person, especially if that man is John Boruk. John... or “Johnny,” as he liked to be called, was an ordinary guy. An everyman who worked hard throughout his life and was spending his retirement years living quietly with his dog, Booger, in a manufactured home on the edge of town. He passed away on Christmas Day with Booger right by his side. But, not without leaving a legacy that will serve others on the Central Coast for some time to come. You see, this seemingly ordinary man did an extraordinary thing. He donated $400,000 to Wilshire Hospice.

John Boruk was born in Texas; played football in college; served his country in WWII and was proud to call himself a momma's boy. John Boruk was also a giver. Anyone who spent time with him was sure to get at least a small dose of his personal philosophy about givers and takers. He didn't much care for the latter of the two and spent a lot of time devoting himself to finding ways to be a giver.

The seed of Johnny's giving spirit appears to have been the result of a car accident. The accident wasn't his fault, but was, in fact, the fault of the other driver. When he noticed that the other driver was a young mother with two children and was clearly not a woman of means, he decided right then and there to pay for the damages himself. In hindsight, perhaps it was divine intervention or maybe even his momma's voice speaking to him; but, either way, it wasn't so much the accident itself but the card he received from that young mom that changed his outlook and his life. The card read, “I want to thank you for your kindness. I am deeply sorry for creating a problem and incredibly relieved that you were so generous. I hope that your kindness comes back to you tenfold.”

“It was minor, but it was an indication that I should turn my life around and be more polite to people,” he said. “Now, whenever I'm feeling kind of bad, or in the dumps or something, I'll pick up that letter and read it and it'll revive my senses – I want to be a giver not a taker, and from then on, it changed my life.”

John's death wasn't unexpected. He saw it coming from a distance. When I first met him, he had known for quite some time and he was, in fact, a patient with Wilshire Hospice. We met at his home where we drank beer and talked about life, politics, sports and the good that his $400,000 was going to do for so many people that would never have the opportunity to thank him. When asked about how he felt about it all, especially the dying part, he didn't hesitate for a second. “Oh yes, sure,” he said smiling. “I'm on my way out...but in a great way. I couldn't have planned it better.”

In life and in death, John Boruk shows us how liberating it is to give. His example serves as a reminder that words are not enough. The power is in the doing. It is in the giving, not the taking. He also helped us to understand the invisible bond we all share, regardless of our situation or circumstance in life...that there is something found in caring for others that makes us achieve who we are. John Boruk left this world a better place simply for having been in it. Thanks and Godspeed Johnny. We'll miss you.

John Boruk's generous gift will help Wilshire Hospice continue its mission to provide care and services to local patients and their families on the basis of need rather than their ability to pay.

Traditional Community Celebration & Procession

Presented by Wilshire Hospice

Mission Plaza, San Luis Obispo

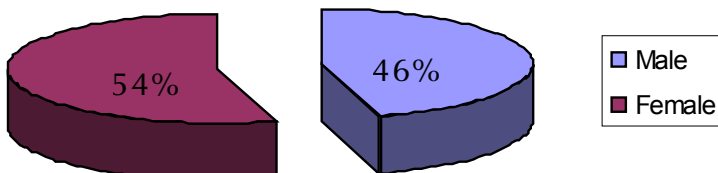

"Day of the Dead" is a traditional

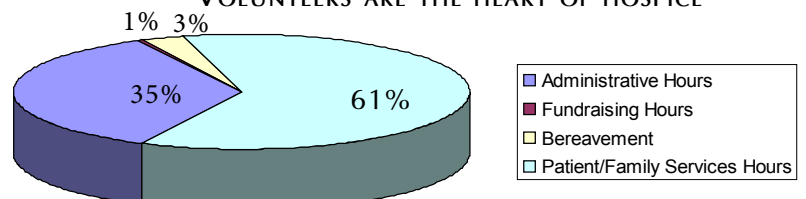

Latin American holiday that honors the dead.

Join us in this unique celebration - both reverant and festive - as we prepare to welcome the spirits of our loved ones and friends to San Luis Obispo.
